

Privacy Policy

This Policy will be reviewed annually to ensure it is kept up to date with current regulations and relative to the businesses daily functions.

This policy outlines how Varo Medical collects, uses, stores, discloses, and secures patient information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988.

The definition of information:

Personal Information: Any information that identifies an individual (e.g., name, DOB, address).

Health Information: Information related to a person's health, medical history, medications, diagnoses, or treatment.

Sensitive Information: A subset of personal information including health, racial or ethnic origin, sexual orientation, genetic information, etc.

1. Who can I contact about this policy?

For enquiries concerning this policy, you can contact the Varo medical Practice Manager Claire Jorgensen. Claire is contactable via practice phone, or through the practice email address. If unavailable the query will be passed on and reviewed in a timely manner.

2. When and why is your consent necessary?

When you register as a patient of this practice, you provide consent for the GPs and practice staff to access and use your personal information to facilitate the delivery of healthcare. Access to your personal information is restricted to practice team members who require it for your care. If we ever use your personal information for purposes other than outlined in this document, we will obtain additional consent from you.

It is important to us that as our patient, you understand why we collect and use your personal information.

By acknowledging this Privacy Policy you consent to us collecting, holding, using, retaining and disclosing your personal information in the manners described below.

3. Why do we collect, use, store, and share your personal information?

The practice collects, uses, stores, and shares your personal information primarily to manage your health safely and effectively. This includes providing healthcare services, managing medical records, and ensuring accurate billing and payments. Additionally, we may utilise your information for internal quality and safety improvement processes such as practice audits, accreditation purposes, and staff training to maintain high-quality service standards.

4. What personal information is collected?

The information we will collect about you includes your:

- Names, date of birth, addresses, contact details
- Medical information including medical history, medications, allergies and adverse reactions, immunisations, social history, family history and risk factors to disease.
- Medicare number (where available) for identification and claiming purposes
- Healthcare identifier numbers
- Health fund details.

5. Can you deal with us anonymously?

Our Medical professionals will not provide medical treatment anonymously as they require accurate information regarding your medical history, if you have concerns regarding who will be able to see your data please feel free to discuss this with our practice manager or treating physician.

6. How is personal information collected?

- The practice may collect your personal information in several different ways:
- When you make your first appointment, the practice team will collect your personal, demographic and medical information via your registration.
- We may also collect your personal information when you visit our website, send us an email or SMS, telephone us, make an online appointment, or communicate with us using social media.

In some circumstances, personal information may also be collected from other sources, including:

- Your guardian or responsible person.
- In children where practical, we obtain consent from parents or guardians. Mature minors may consent for themselves depending on capacity.
- Other involved healthcare providers, such as specialists, allied health professionals, hospitals, community health services, and pathology and diagnostic imaging services.
- Your health fund, Medicare, or the Department of Veterans' Affairs (if relevant).

While providing medical services, further personal information may be collected via:

- Electronic prescribing
- My Health Record
- Online appointments.

Various types of images may be collected and used, including:

- CCTV footage: Collected from our premises for security and safety purpose
- Photos and medical images: These can be taken using personal devices for medical purposes, following the guidelines outlined in our policy on using personal devices for medical images. – see use of personal devices for clinical imaging policy
- We will always comply with privacy obligations when collecting personal information from third-party sources. This includes ensuring transparency with patients, obtaining necessary consents, maintaining data accuracy, securing the information, and using it only for specified purposes.

7. When, why and with whom do we share your personal information?

We sometimes share your personal information:

- with third parties for business purposes, such as accreditation agencies or information technology providers – these third parties are required to comply with APPs and this policy
- with other healthcare providers (e.g. In referral letters)
- when it is required or authorised by law (e.g. court subpoenas)
- when it is necessary to lessen or prevent a serious threat to a patient's life, health or safety or public health or safety, or it is impractical to obtain the patient's consent
- to assist in locating a missing person
- to establish, exercise or defend an equitable claim
- for the purpose of confidential dispute resolution process
- when it is a statutory requirement to share certain personal information (e.g. some diseases require mandatory notification)

- when it is provision of medical services, through electronic prescribing, My Health Record (e.g. via Shared Health Summary, Event Summary).

Only people who need to access your personal information will be able to do so. Other than providing medical services or as otherwise described in this policy, the practice will not share personal information with any third party without your consent.

We do not share your personal information with anyone outside Australia (unless under exceptional circumstances that are permitted by law) without your consent.

8. Will your information be used for marketing purposes?

The practice will not use your personal information for marketing any goods or services directly to you without your express consent. If you do consent, you may opt out of direct marketing at any time by notifying the practice in writing.

9. How is your information used to improve services?

The practice may use your personal information to improve the quality of the services offered to patients through research, analysis of patient data for quality improvement and for training activities with the practice team

We may provide de-identified data to other organisations to improve population health outcomes. If we provide this information to other organisations patients cannot be identified from the information we share, the information is secure and is stored within Australia. You can let reception staff know if you do not want your de-identified information included.

At times, general practices are approached by research teams to recruit eligible patients into specific studies which require access to identifiable information. You may be approached by a member of our practice team to participate in research. Researchers will not approach you directly without your express consent having been provided to the practice. If you provide consent, you would then receive specific information on the research project and how your personal health information will be used, at which point you can decide to participate or not participate in the research project.

10. How are document automation technologies used?

Document automation is where systems use existing data to generate electronic documents relating to medical conditions and healthcare.

The practice uses document automation technologies to create documents such as referrals, which are sent to other healthcare providers. These documents contain only your relevant medical information.

These document automation technologies are used through secure medical software Best Practice.

All users of the medical software have their own unique user credentials and password and can only access information that is relevant to their role in the practice team.

The practice complies with the Australian privacy legislation and APPs to protect your information.

All data, both electronic and paper are stored and managed in accordance with the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners Privacy and managing health information guidance.

11. How are Artificial Intelligence (AI) Scribes used?

The practice plans to implement an AI scribe tool in future to support GPs take notes during their consultations with you. The AI scribe uses an audio recording of your consultation to generate a clinical note for your health record.

The practice AI scribe service is Lyrebird. Lyrebird:

- does not share information outside of Australia
- destroys the audio file once the transcription is complete.

- removes sensitive, personal identifying information as part of the transcription

The practice will only use data from our digital scribe service to provide healthcare to you.

- An opt out will be provided to patients at the time of registration and at the commencement of each consult.

12. How is your personal information stored and protected?

Your personal information may be stored in various forms. Such as:

- Visual records: X-rays, CT scans, videos, and photos
- Audio recordings: stored securely within Lyrebird AI scribe but is destroyed once the transcription has been completed.
- Written records: Scripts, Specialist correspondence.

The practice stores all personal information securely.

13. How can you access and correct your personal information at the practice?

You have the right to request access to, and correction of, your personal information.

The practice acknowledges patients may request access to their medical records.

A patient may request access to their medical records via the format of written communication through an email request including 3 points of identification, these records will be disseminated or updated as requested.

The practice will respond to any requests to access or correct your personal information within 30 days.

The practice will take reasonable steps to correct your personal information where the information is not accurate or up to date. Sometimes, we will ask you to verify your personal information held by the practice is correct and current. You may request we correct or update your information. To do this please contact via email reception@varomedical.com.au.

14. How can you lodge a privacy-related complaint, and how will the complaint be handled at the practice?

We take complaints and concerns regarding privacy seriously. You should express any privacy concerns you may have. We will then attempt to resolve it in accordance with the resolution procedure.

All privacy related complaints should be lodged via practicemanager@varomedical.com.au, they can be followed up via phone 6219 9320 or attendance at 158 Channel Highway, Taroona 7053. All complaints will be actioned within a 30 day period.

If you do not feel we have resolved your issue You may also contact the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner. The Office of the Australian Information Commissioner will require you to give them time to respond before they investigate. For further information visit www.oaic.gov.au or call the OAIC (Office of the Australian Information Commissioner) on 1300 363 992.

15. How is privacy on the website maintained?

At Varo Medical, any personal information you share with us through website, email, and social media, is handled securely and confidentially. This practice uses analytics and cookies. Via an offsite IT provider to maintain compliance with Essential 8 cyber security.

16. Policy review statement

Our privacy policy is regularly reviewed to ensure compliance with current obligations.

If any changes are made:

They will be reflected on the website.

Significant changes may be communicated directly to patients via email or other means.

Please check the policy periodically for updates. If you have any questions, feel free to contact us.